

CEO Tang, Behave Yourself Chapter 5 To 6

Chapter 5

Su Dong said with a cold face, but then he suddenly thought of something, and said: "Oh right, I almost forgot about that. I should have taken out the money your elder sister-in-law had given birth to Yue Zi to treat her, but you also know that I don't have much left over, so you should lend it to me first. First deal with these two matters."

"You'll pay?" "Dad, eldest sister-in-law gave birth to eldest brother's child, not yours. Why do I need you to give birth to it?"

Su Dong raised his eyes and stared at her warmly, "What nonsense are you talking about? Your big brother and I haven't split up yet, so I'll be responsible for the expenses. Otherwise, if we spread the word, people will gossip about us."

"Since there is no division, then I will not give you all of the money that my eldest brother and sister-in-law earned. Shouldn't we hand over a portion of it as family? But after so many years, why haven't I found any?"

"Warmth, why are you being so calculative? We're all family, so what if you're a bit generous? Although your elder brother and elder sister-in-law have been registered for seven or eight years, haven't they just gotten married in the first half of the year?" "It's not like you don't know our customs. Since this wedding isn't going to happen, your elder sister-in-law won't count as one of us. How can I ask her for the money that she and your elder brother earn by opening a shop?"

"Dad, if I remember correctly, it was you who invested money into this store. Sister-in-law only registered with you three years after you signed up for the release. This is your brother's pre-marriage property, how can I not hand it over to you ..."

Su Dong frowned as he looked at Su Tong, "Su Tong, what's wrong with you? Today is so abnormal, I don't usually ask you about these things, why are you so unwilling to let it go? Also, are you really going to lose money, or are you deliberately making up excuses because you don't want to lend your big brother money? "

The coldness in Su Wen's heart grew heavier and heavier as he looked at Su Dong.

"Dad, if you don't believe me, I can show you a screenshot of the investment. Also, I usually just ask myself, since we're family, there's no point in being too fussy. But you heard what my sister-in-law said yesterday. She wanted to get rid of me!"

"Don't make it sound so bad. Your sister-in-law only said that there were too many children in the house to live in. Besides, this house was meant for your eldest brother, so both of us are going to live here. It's good that your eldest sister-in-law was able to stay here for so many years without saying a word."

"Loan residence?!"

Su Qingrou looked at Su Dong with disbelief, "Dad, the name on this property certificate is you, right? How did you end up borrowing this room?"

"It's not wrong that the name on the certificate is me, but since your elder brother is married, I should have prepared a wedding room for him. Since I didn't buy another house for them, this house should naturally be theirs."

"Since dad has already planned this, why should I add something to this house?" Which of the family's air-conditioned sofas, washing machines and refrigerators weren't bought by me? If I don't borrow them, would I have to move them away?"

After Su Dong heard this, he did not care about Su Lu who was by his side. He stretched out his hand and slapped the tea table.

"Nikki, what have you done to yourself? Do you still want to care about these things? Since I'm raising you now, do you want me to calculate the money with you as well?"

Su Qingrou looked at Su Dong and took a deep breath. She suppressed the tears in her eyes and forced a smile.

"Dad, just pretend that I'm possessed. I said the wrong thing, I'll go back to my room first."

After saying that, before Su Dong could say anything, he stood up and went straight back to his room.

After returning to his room, he tidied up some clothes in the closet and put them into his luggage, then put some important books on the shelf into a cardboard box. He prepared to send them to his friends first by express delivery, and when she found a place to stay and settled down, he would get his friends to send the books back to her.

After spending an entire morning, Nikki finally finished packing her things before lunch. She only needed to wait for the afternoon delivery to arrive and send the books before she would be able to leave the house.

Before leaving, she originally wanted to be happy, but she didn't expect that things would still turn out this way.

There were two knocks on the door, and before she could answer, the door was pushed open.

Nikki lifted her head and saw that it was Su Huanhuan, so she started to clean the room.

“Sis, why did you suddenly say that you're going to work? I didn't hear you mention it yesterday either?”

I only received the news last night. Initially, I didn't intend to go, but since the other party is an old friend of mine, it isn't good for me to reject him.

“Really?” Su Huanhuan carefully sized up Su Wangsun. Seeing that she didn't seem to be lying, she heaved a sigh of relief, “I thought I said too many things that shouldn't have been said yesterday. That's why you exploded.”

Nikki looked up at Su Huanhuan who was sitting on her bed, “Why are you so free these past two days? You come back home every day, won't your parents have any objections?”

Su Huanhuan smiled and touched her belly, “I am not afraid of them now. Didn't I say before that they were always hoping for me to have a second child? Now that I am pregnant, they will treat me as their ancestor. “

She looked at Su Huanhuan's lower abdomen with a surprised expression.

"You're pregnant?! "Why didn't you say anything when you were here yesterday?"

"I wasn't sure yesterday. After leaving here, I got my husband to drive me to the hospital for medical examination. I'm almost 2 months pregnant."

Su Huanhuan's face was filled with pride as she said this. She already had a son, and now that her second child was able to make her stand firmly in her husband's house, regardless of whether it was male or female, she couldn't think of a reason not to feel proud.

"Now that you are in the early stages of pregnancy, you should stay at home and take care of it. If I'm not here, you should stop coming here and avoid any conflicts with sister-in-law. You are both pregnant, so no one can afford to take care of you."

Su Huanhuan curled her lips and glanced in the direction of the door, "If you're not here, even if they ask me to come, I won't come. But big sis, I just heard from dad that you've made a huge loss in gold?"

Warmth nodded. "That's right!"

"That's not right. I remember that you don't like investment. Why would you suddenly want to go and sell gold?" You're not lying to them, are you? "

He knew that he couldn't hide anything from his astute little sister, so he decided not to hide it anymore. "Sister-in-law wants to borrow money from me to change the dining room into a children's room. Tell me, after I hear your words, do I dare to borrow money again? Furthermore, I originally did not have much money on me, so all of the previous deposits were borrowed by them. "

Hearing that, Su Huanhuan patted Su Wen's shoulder and said excitedly, "Well done, you should have done that long ago. If you knew that it would have such an effect, I would have said those words to you earlier. If it was the case, I might have been able to save your two hundred thousand yuan! However, it's not too late now. If you can clearly see their faces, then everything is worth it. "

Chapter 6

“I really don’t like living under the same roof and being so scheming, but I don’t want to continue pretending to be stupid. Like you said, I always have plans for myself. Don’t let the day come when you are homeless and penniless.”

Su Huanhuan patted the back of Su Wen’s hands and said, “Sis, if you listen to my advice again, you should find a good man to marry. This is more reliable than anything, it’s true!”

“It’s such a pity that you’re not a matchmaker. As for marriage, I don’t want to intentionally affect it because of fate, but if there’s no such thing as fate, then I naturally wouldn’t resist marriage. However, if there’s no such thing as fate, then there’s no need to force it.”

“My good sister, fate allows us to meet when we’re out. It would be weird if we meet when you’re at home all day long. Fortunately, you’re finally going to work. With so many people around, you might be able to find your home very soon.”

“Sister, let me give you some advice. Before you go to work, change this old lady’s hairstyle and wear a pair of contact lenses so that your black-rimmed glasses are eliminated. You look like you’re in your early twenties, but in your fifties, you look like a baby-faced middle-aged woman.”

Su Qingrou looked at herself in the mirror and gave a slight smile. It was time to change her appearance, but it wasn’t to attract men. It was time to say goodbye to the past and leave home. She should have given herself a new start.

“Oh yeah, big sis, you have to remember to urge me to give you the money. If I don’t, you can’t want the money back.”

“I know!”

Although she agreed on the surface, she no longer intended to get the money back. This money, she would just treat it as paying off their brotherly love. In the future, she wouldn’t be so stupid as to supplement her family.

As for Su Dong, he had helped nurture Su Dong, and his heart was not without himself. It was just that the idea of raising a child in the countryside to prevent old age had prompted him to place more importance on his big brother and his family.

As a result, she would do whatever she had to do to be filial. She would buy whatever Su Dong wanted, but she wouldn't give any money directly.

Su Qingrou remembered that she had told Su Dong that she liked having a soft heart, but once she hardened it, there would be no time for it to soften back.

However, Su Dong had probably forgotten about this!

That afternoon, Nikki pulled her suitcase and left the village that she had lived in for only a few years.

Sitting at the back of the taxi and looking at the brand-new commercial houses and small foreign buildings along the village road, Nikki suddenly felt a little sarcastic.

No matter how advanced the economy was, their thoughts were still ancient. When would the people here truly be able to achieve equality between men and women?

After about an hour on the road, the taxi arrived at the airport.

Nikki dragged a huge suitcase into the airport terminal. She found an empty seat and sat down before taking out her phone to search online for a flight that could fly right away.

No one asked her to be an editor, and she did not fail her investment. In fact, the money she had was just enough to support her willfulness this time.

She knew many things in her heart, but she was not willing to reveal them, because she was still thinking about her mother's dying words and also thinking about her father-daughter relationship with Su Dong.

This was why she was willing to retreat. However, now, even Huanhuan was able to clearly see that Zhou Jing was secretly trying to chase her away. If she didn't leave now, it would simply be hateful.

Soon, Nikki found a flight to S City. The flight time was more than two hours, which was just enough time for her to check in.

Nikki quickly placed the order on the internet. When she found out that the payment was successful and that her phone had also received the check out message, she stood up and dragged her luggage to change her boarding pass.

Because she was in a hurry to leave, and also because the suitcase in her hands was too big, when she walked towards the exit, she only heard a light 'bang' sound. She immediately turned around and saw a man wearing a gray windbreaker.

"I'm sorry. Did I bump into you? I'm really sorry. It was my carelessness. Are you alright?"

She hurriedly turned around to apologize. After being struck by such a heavy box, she knew without even asking that it must have hurt.

The man in the windbreaker slowly straightened up when he heard Su He's voice. He had a black superb face that could only be seen by a small part of it. However, this part of his face made Su He realize that this person's facial features must be very outstanding.

Although he was a leftover girl that was over 30 years old, he still felt a bit shy when he saw the handsome guy.

Nikki's face was slightly red as she asked again, "Do you need to check if your knee is alright? Do you need to see a doctor?"

The man's straight lips slightly lifted, and a magnetic voice was heard in Su Wanxin's ear.

"It's nothing, I just bumped into him a little. He's fine!"

The man nodded to Warm Snow, then strode towards the exit of the station.

Nikki noticed that this man was actually on the same flight as her. It was just that she was in economy class while this man was on duty in the VIP area.

"Warm water, what kind of infatuation is this! "He even said that looking at a person's appearance, it's too superficial. With this kind of reaction, wouldn't it be like lifting a stone to smash one's own foot?"

Nikki clenched her right fist and lightly hit her head. So what if they were on the same plane? It was just a chance encounter and they would not meet again in the future.

Five hours later, Nikki was standing on the busy streets of S city. She looked down at the time on her watch. It was already 11 PM.

A big city was different. At their hometown, the streets would be empty as soon as eight o'clock in the evening, but here, the city seemed to have just woken up. It was filled with boundless vitality.

Nikki took out her cell phone. After hesitating for a moment, she still pressed Su Dong's number.

"Oi ~ ~ Who is it!"

The sleepiness of her voice made her feel cold as she unconsciously wrapped her coat around her.

"Dad, it's me, I'm here!"

"Oh ~ It's really warm. As long as you arrive, it's good. It's getting late. Rest early, I'm hanging up!"

'Pa! 'A sound was heard from the other end of the phone.

Just as he was about to put his phone back in his pocket, he suddenly found a message on WeChat reminding him.

"Nikki, where's the script you promised me? Don't play dead. You think I can't find you just because you logged off your QQ? Let me tell you, if I don't see your script before 12, you won't need to submit your script in the future! "
